Board re" The I gl states that this rule is liable to be interpreted to include all Subjects in which a pupil has been once examined and as a result a candidate for re examination in all Subjects will claim to pay only Rs 6/ whereas Rs 12/ will have to be paid for the first examination in Madras the fee for re examination is said to be Rs 12/- in regard to the no. of subjects for such re examination and this the I gl considers will not be fair when the subjects for re examination does not exceed one or two Rs 3/ is to be charged prepared for each subject, subject to a maximum of Rs 12/

Bangalore 6th March 1914

From Rao Bahadur

Inspector General of Education in Mysore

To

Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore
Departments of Education & Agriculture
Bangalore

SIR

I have the honour to inform you that the words 'a subject or subjects in the Secondary School-Leaving Certificate Revised Rule VII (3) noted below are liable to be interpreted as including all subjects so that a candidate for re-examination taking all the subjects in which he has been once examined claims the privilege of paying Rs 6 instead of Rs 12/- which a candidate appearing for the Public Examination for the first time has to pay It seems to me that when the present rule was passed this aspect of the question escaped notice

2 In Madras the fee for re-examination is Rs 12 without regard to the number of subjects brought up for re-examination But it does not appear to be fair to levy a fee of Rs 12 for re-examination when the number of subjects brought up does not exceed one or two
